

- 2. Conduct the public hearing regarding the property located east of Book Road and north of Hassert Boulevard (The Enclave)- PZC 19-1-09 (Item 1 of 4)

Gabrielle Mattingly, Planning Services Team, gave an overview of the case. The PZC inquired about the current zoning of the property and school age children. Mattingly responded that the property is currently zoned A-1, Agricultural in the County. An age restriction covenant will be recorded on the property in accordance with FHA requirements.

Len Monson, attorney with Kuhn, Heap, & Monson, spoke on behalf of the petitioner.

The PZC inquired about the possibility of the 3 car garage models adjacent to each other. Monson noted that each lot will have a minimum of 22' of interior side yard, resulting in ample separation between the properties.

Public Testimony:

Jim Georgi is a neighboring property owner in River Run. Mr. Georgi hoped the new development will complement River Run.

The petitioner responded to the testimony.

PZC closed the public hearing.

PZC supported the project, finding the increased green space and age restriction covenant to be an improvement upon the previous plan.
