Saurin Patel, owner of Hawaii Fluid Art presented to the Liquor Commission. Hawaii Fluid Art is a new business coming to 115 E Ogden Ave, suite 121. This is a franchise that will be the 3rd location in Illinois; there are 65 in the nation. This is a painting studio that specializes in pouring acrylic paint, they will also have a space for other artists to come in and teach/display their crafts.

The Commissioners reinforced BASSET requirements for all staff. There will not be outdoor classes taught, all liquor will be limited to inside the facility.

Commissioners researched other Hawaii Fluid Art locations and did not find any complaints or issues.

There are currently no Class M Recreational licenses available, a license cap increase is being referred to the City Council at the next available meeting in October.

A motion was made by Chirico, seconded by Stauffer, approved and referred to City Council. The motion carried by the following vote:

Aye: 6 - Chirico, Douglas, Koranda, McGury, Signorella, and Stauffer

F. REPORTS:

Senior Assistant City Attorney Bonner provided an update of previous liquor actions taken by City Council.

1. Receive BASSET statistics for September 2024

Detective Creighton presented the BASSET statistics for in-person and online classes for September 2024:

72 in-person attendance
16 online renewals

2. Receive the Liquor Concept Committee Report for September
