Marilyn Schweitzer (Naperville) clarified her comments from 12/12/24 and expressed concerns on SECA grant fund policy, SECA's mission and goals, what requires City Council approval, publicly sharing SECA applications, and improving public understanding of the SECA grant fund under the governance of the open meetings act.

Commissioners discussed public posting of SECA applications, funding long-time events versus new events, adding a short summary question to the SECA application, maintaining the anonymity of individual SECA Commissioner recommendations, public art being allowable on private property with owner agreement, allocating funding above an applicant's requested amount, and the necessity of reviewing and revising the SECA mission.

Brodhead recognized Michael Gold to speak on ARTFORUM. Gold stated that ARTFORUM hopes to become a public-private partnership with the City and is currently still forming a structure, an advisory council, and seeking their federal 501(c)(3) certification. They are not absorbing or affiliated with Century Walk. Portner stated that existing Century Walk art is being maintained by the Century Walk curator and funded through a City Obligation for public art maintenance.

Brodhead stated that the mural at 222 S. Main Street should not have been approved when it was introduced under New Business at the 09/24/24 meeting.
