L. ORDINANCES AND RESOLUTIONS:

1. Pass the ordinance approving a major change to the resubdivision of Lot 11 of Naperville Crossings PUD, a conditional use for an automobile repair facility, and a preliminary/final PUD plat on the property located at 3136 Anna Marie Lane (Christian Brothers Automotive Corporation) - PZC 17-1-143

Jonathan Wakefield (petitioner) gave a presentation in favor of the proposal and showed the landscape rendering for the property.

Mike Reilly, President of the White Eagle Homeowners Association, spoke against the conditional use and variance request because of its departure from the original PUD design as a retail, entertainment and restaurant center with a housing component and that noise pollution would detract from the ambience of the Naperville Crossings and outdoor gathering spaces. Mr. Reilly also spoke for Tallgrass Homeowners Association regarding the survey they added to the record.

M.D. Skeet, Signature Club Homeowners Association, spoke against the conditional use.

Ari Rosenthal, President of Asbury Homeowners Association spoke against the conditional use and asked Council to adhere to the vision created with School District 204 through Project 60564.

Audrey Clair, President of Prairie Crossing Homeowners Association and representing the South Homeowners of Wheatland (SHOW) spoke against the conditional use because it was inappropriate in the Naperville Crossing entertainment area and there are dealerships within five miles that residents use.

Council discussed the attractiveness of the site plan and landscaping, the types of services the shop would provide, the location, vacant lots in the development, the need for a more commercial tax base on the south side, the length of time the property has been vacant, and varied uses in other retail areas and youth sports activities in the industrial district.

Jonathan Wakefield (petitioner), clarified that they do mainly mechanical, brakes, maintenance, electrical and computer problems and explained the synergy of Christian Brothers Automotive's model with the retail mix.

A motion was made by Councilwoman Brodhead, seconded by Councilwoman Gustin, to pass the ordinance approving a major change to the resubdivision of Lot 11 of Naperville Crossings PUD, a conditional use for an automobile repair facility, and preliminary/final PUD plat on the property located at 3136 Anna Marie Lane (Christian Brothers Automotive Corporation) - PZC 17-1-143.

A motion was may by Councilman Hinterlong, seconded by Councilwoman Gustin, to approve the award.

Aye: 9 - Chirico, Anderson, Brodhead, Coyne, Gustin, Hinterlong, Kruppen, Obarski, and White

N. PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS:

O. REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. Provide feedback regarding potential streetscape improvements along Ogden Avenue from Washington Street to the City's eastern boundary.

Council discussed the color of street signs and the frequency of replacement, painting transformer boxes, burying electric lines, selecting a preferred business sign type (monument versus pole signs), adopting a standard business sign aesthetic, proposing a deadline for the removal of pole signs, and the use of light pole banners to define the corridor identity.

2. Approve the final design of the Naperville Jaycees Park (Item 1 of 2)

Geoff Roehll, Riverwalk Commission Chairman presented the Jaycees Park design plan.

Council discussed the rain garden, the amount and durability of the seating and shading structures, anti-skateboard devices, the aesthetics of the solar panels on the Municipal Center roof, electricity generated by the solar panels producing savings to offset park costs, the possibility of reserving or renting the sheltered meeting areas, maintenance of natural plantings, and the Riverwalk Foundations' maintenance budget.

Mr. Roehll said that they would use hard wood products with long-life guarantees, that there will be a three-year, specialized maintenance plan for natural plantings in rain garden, and The Resiliency Institute will help with interpretive signs and educational programming.

A motion was made by Councilman Hinterlong, seconded by Councilwoman Gustin, to approve the final design of the Naperville Jaycees Park.

Aye: 9 - Chirico, Anderson, Brodhead, Coyne, Gustin, Hinterlong, Krummen, Obarski, and White
