Great selection of everything, you can get a drink from the bar and shop. But just like grocery shopping, don't go there thirsty.

Awesome beer selection and monthly events. The people who work there are friendly and always willing to talk beer. As a bonus, they have a bar so you can sample things before you buy.

They have the largest wine selection in town. Excellent range of choice and if you need help in choosing the right wine for the occasion, the staff is extremely knowledgeable. You can even have a glass to taste test while you are there.

This store is amazing. They have a huge variety of local and non-local options packed into a medium-sized store, which makes it a lot easier to navigate than Binny's. The staff is really nice. I've attended some of their tastings and events at the bar and those are always fun, too.

Had a great time sitting at the bar and talking to Dan. Good opportunity to try some new bourbons without purchasing a full bottle. Great prices and conversation. Will definitely be going again!
