

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY OF NAPERVILLE, ILLINOIS
PROCLAMATION

FIRST RESPONDERS, HEALTHCARE AND ESSENTIAL WORKERS RECOGNITION
JULY 21, 2020

- WHEREAS, the outbreak of the novel Coronavirus (COVID-19) caused a public health emergency of international concern and a crisis in the United States, Illinois, and the City of Naperville; and
- WHEREAS, many individuals were told to stay home to reduce the spread of COVID-19, but certain workers were deemed essential; and
- WHEREAS, first responders including police officers, firefighters, emergency medical workers and military personnel continue to respond to all calls for help with bravery and immediacy; and
- WHEREAS, healthcare and hospital workers risk their personal safety to care for individuals who contract the virus and continue to serve the ongoing healthcare needs of our community; and
- WHEREAS, grocery store, post office, gas station, social service, waste management, utility and all essential workers are keeping the critical infrastructure of our local economy running during the fight against COVID-19;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Steve Chirico, Mayor of the City of Naperville, do hereby honor our

FIRST RESPONDERS, HEALTHCARE AND ESSENTIAL WORKERS in the City of Naperville and commend them all for their dedication, courage and compassion for others during this critical time of need.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the City of Naperville this 21 day of July, 2020.

Steve Chirico
