

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY OF NAPERVILLE, ILLINOIS
PROCLAMATION

JANE BOWERS DAY
AUGUST 25, 2021

WHEREAS, the Naperville YMCAs have been an integral part of the community life of Naperville since 1910, dedicated to youth development, healthy living and social responsibility, and fulfills that mission throughout the community with youth, family, adult and senior programming, summer camps, before and after school care, employment opportunities for young people and adults, and welcomes all regardless of their ability to pay; and

WHEREAS, Jane Bowers has served as the Executive Assistant to the Naperville YMCAs since 1985, and as Senior Administrative Director has supported all Administrative, Board, Fundraising, Charitable Activities and Special Events efforts of the organization for over 36 years; and

WHEREAS, Jane has been named Outstanding Services Support Administrator of the Year by the Illinois State Alliance of YMCAs, and volunteers as Secretary of the Naperville Lions Club; and

WHEREAS, Jane has served as a backbone of the Naperville YMCAs, willing steward of all things "Y," trustworthy, talented and caring colleague and friend to all, exhibiting perseverance and a tireless cooperative nature in every situation, both professional and personal; and

WHEREAS, Jane has served as informal archivist for the Y, not only maintaining institutional knowledge, but keeping on her desk so much critical information that the desk, which served her for 36 years, will now be part of the Naperville YMCA collection at Naper Settlement, on the occasion of her retirement.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Steve Chirico, Mayor of the City of Naperville, do hereby proclaim August 25, 2021, as

in the City of Naperville and encourage all citizens to join me in thanking Jane for her service to the community and wishing her a long and happy retirement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the City of Naperville this 17th day of August 2021.

Steve Chirico, Mayor
