Dear Mr. Stephens,

This confirms that GE Grid Solutions, LLC Lentrionics is the original equipment manufacturer of the Lentrionics Multiplexer and Packet-Switched products (known as JungleMUX and JunglePAX respectively) and the sale of this equipment in US and Canada is currently transacted directly between GE Grid Solutions, LLC. and purchasing end-users, and that there are no authorized distributors or resellers of this product in your region.

GE also is the sole provider for support services and training on our products.

Your truly,
