The Customer understands that the fence will follow the existing grade or contours of the ground unless otherwise specified in this contract. Proposed scheduled installation dates are target dates and are subject to change due to weather conditions. The final balance is due upon completion of the fence installation. When the customer signs this contract or by providing the deposit, they agree to the Terms & Conditions, that the prices, specifications, and conditions are acceptable terms. Their signature also represents that they are the owner of the property or the authorized agent of the owner. The contract becomes effective upon the signature of the proposal or by providing a down payment.
