

Naper Settlement Museum Board Student Representatives

Aarush Jalan is a Neuqua Valley High School student (Class of 2026) with a 4.28 GPA and strong aptitude in STEM, reflected in advanced coursework such as AP Calculus BC and Computer Science A. He gained research experience at the Illinois Institute of Technology, exploring homomorphic encryption and machine learning. Aarush is also a Python developer, Police Cadet Officer, AstroThink board member, and SAT math tutor. A competitive soccer player and second-degree black belt, he combines leadership, technical skill, and community service in all pursuits.

Hannah Horgan is a sophomore at Naperville North High School and a third-generation Naperville resident passionate about civic engagement and community service. She has participated in YMCA's Youth and Government program, studies AP Comparative World Government, and is a member of Model United Nations. As president of the youth chapter of Chinese American Women in Action (CAWA), Hannah helps organize community events promoting leadership and mental wellbeing. Her experiences, along with her family's legacy of public service, have inspired her interest in areas such as accessibility, urban planning, and local history.
