N. PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS:

O. REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. Receive the report regarding the City's landmarking procedures and direct staff to draft amendments and facilitate review/approval processes as appropriate

Kaylin Risvold (Naperville Chamber of Commerce) spoke in favor of requiring property owner consent and landmarking proposals.

Christine Jeffries (Naperville Development Partnership) spoke in favor of requiring property owner consent and landmarking proposals.

Becky Simon (Naperville Preservation) spoke against requiring property owner consent.

Tim Messer spoke against the landmarking proposals.

Jane Burke (Naperville Preservation, Inc.) discussed landmarking practices across the world.

Marilyn L Schweitzer spoke against the landmarking proposals.

Scott M. Day landmarking spoke in favor of requiring property owner consent and landmarking proposals.

Council discussed incentives to encourage volunteer landmarking, the need to find a solution that is fair to all parties, the appropriateness of Council initiating the landmarking process, providing landmarking resources, and increasing promotion through the City's website.

Council also discussed removing the ability for non-property owners to initiate a landmarking petition, allowing a vote by a majority of Council to initiate the landmarking process, and establishing a clear point of access for interested property owners to begin the process.

DiSanto discussed establishing objective criteria for the Council to apply in order to staff to start the landmarking process, that after Council direction the request will go before the Historic Preservation Commission ("Commission") for review and public hearing, and the last step will be for the City Council to vote on the Commission recommendation.

Laff explained recent landmark surveys.

Council stated that landmarking qualifications/criteria should be determined prior to any Council deliberation.

DiSanto explained that two commissions will review the draft landmarking text amendment prior to Council consideration.

WRITTEN COMMENT ONLY

Brian Rohr - Naperville continues to be recognized as "a best place to live". An element of this notoriety is the attractiveness and feel of the community. Awards to, funding support for and Council attention / focus on supporting historic preservation will go a long way in maintaining our community desirability and reputation.

Philip Buchanan (Naperville Preservation) - Hello Mayor Chirico, Council Members, Mr. Krieger, staff and residents I rise tonight for a couple of quick comments... Agenda I. 22-0647 City Landmark procedures Sadly, Naperville is not a leader in this area. We are leaders in so many other areas. Public Schools, the Park District and city government. But not here. We need to do better. Let's support more landmarks and preservation efforts and become leaders in this important area. To close I'd like to thank Councilman Dr. White for his leadership in this past weekend Juneteenth celebration. Supported by the Park district, our local representatives, US Congressman Foster and Congresswoman Underwood, Edwards Hospital and North Central College. Naperville DEI Manager Dr. Williams spoke. Council members Holzauer and Sullivan were there. A beautiful day for this family event to commemorate an important day our country's history.

Anne V Swanson - I have lived in the Historic District since before it was a Historic District. When I moved here, Naperville was proud of its history and historic buildings. The first visit from my next door neighbor was to explain the petition to make the Historic District. That pride in our history has eroded over the years and I feel we are lesser for it. I would like to see that pride in our history return with support for the Historic District, not derision, and incentives to restore our historic homes, not destroy them.
