SETTLEMENT CONTRACT RIDER TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

Petitioner hereby agrees to accept a lump sum in the amount of $92,101.61 (50% right leg, 20% left leg) at a maximum rate of $721.17 in full, final, and complete settlment of any and all claims and compensation the Petitioner has against the Respondent under the Illinois Workers' Compensation Act ("Act") for all accidential injuries allegedly incurred as a result of the June 17, 2009 incident prior to the approval of this contract and including any and all results, developments or sequelae, fatal or not fatal, medical benefits, temporary total disability, and permanent partial disability, allegedly resulting from such accidental injuries. Respondent has paid Petittioner's medical expenses that (1) were incurred prior to the approval of the contract, (2) concern Petitioner's right and left legs and (3) are causally related to the June 17, 2009 work injury.

Respondent denies that Petitioner has incurred any injuries to the degree alleged and that any such injuries are compensable and this settlement is only made to amicably resolve disputed issues so as to avoid further litigation. This settlement resolves disputes concerning temporary total disability and permanent partial disability compensation, as well as all medical, surgical, and hospital expenses resulting from the said accidental injuries. Respondent is hereby released, acquitted, and discharged from any and all liability under the Act, in any way arising out of the alleged accidential occurrences herein.

Petitioner represents that he is not currently a Medicare beneficiary and is not otherwise Medicare eligible nor is he receiving or has he applied for Social Security Disability or Retirement benefits. Petitioner further represents that he has not applied for Social Security benefits and does not anticipate applying for benefits in the next six (6) months nor does he have a reasonale expectation of Medicare entitlement in the next thirty (30) months.

The submission of this contract is contingent upon approval of the lump sum petition which is a part hereof and all rights of review under Sections 8(a), 19(h) and 4(c) of the Act are expressly waived. By entering into this agreement, Respondent does not waive and in fact reserves any and all of its rights under Section 5 of the Act. This lump sum settlement represents approximately 50% of right leg and 20% of left leg under Section 8(e) (12) of the Act.
