

Scott Williams, Planning Services Team, gave an overview of the request.

Len Monson, attorney with Kuhn, Heap, & Monson, spoke on behalf of the petitioner.

The PZC inquired about the proposed porch. Monson responded that there is an entrance from the home to the porch. The porch is not heated and will be used in the summer.

Public Testimony:

Linda Kuhn is a neighboring resident and requested the PZC deny the variance because there is no unique condition or physical hardship.

The petitioner responded to the public testimony.

PZC closed the public hearing.

Chairperson Martinez and Commissioners Athanikar, Fessler, Habel, Hanson, Margulies and Morin recommended approval of the variance request, noting that a deck could be built in the same location without a variance.

Commissioners Bansal and Losurdo cast the dissenting votes, finding there to be no hardship on the subject property.

A motion was made by Losurdo, seconded by Habel to adopt the findings of fact as presented by the petitioner and approve PZC 19-1-028, a variance to allow an enclosed porch to encroach in the rear yard setback on the subject property located at 1331 N. Webster, Naperville subject to the following condition: the 108 square feet of the enclosed porch encroaching into the rear yard setback shall be included when calculating the percentage of the required yard that may be occupied by detached accessory structures, such that the total detached accessory structures plus the proposed enclosed porch shall not exceed 480 square feet in size per Section 6-2-10.5.

Aye: 7 - Athanikar, Fessler, Hanson, Margulies, Chairperson Martinez, Morin, and Habel

Nay: 2 - Bansal, and Losurdo

3. Conduct the public hearing to consider a variance to permit a 6' tall privacy fence in the required corner side yard at the subject property located at 1214 Needham Road - PZC 19-1-036

Erin Venard, Planning Services Team, gave an overview of the request. The PZC inquired about sight lines. Venard responded that the fence has been reviewed by the City's Engineering Team; there are no sight distance issues.

Robert DeAngeles spoke as the petitioner.

Public Testimony: None

PZC closed the public hearing.

PZC supported the request, finding that the proposed fence did not interfere with neighboring sight lines.

A motion was made by Hanson, seconded by Losurdo to adopt the findings of fact as presented by the petitioner and approve PZC 19-1-036, a variance to permit a 6' tall privacy fence in the required corner side yard at the subject property located at 1214 Needham Rd, Naperville.

Commissioner Losurdo recused himself from the dais.

Gabrielle Mattingly, Planning Services Team, gave an overview of the request.

Kathleen West, attorney with Dommermuth Cobine West Gensler Philipchuck Corrigan and Bernhard, Ltd, spoke on behalf of the petitioner.

The PZC inquired about other approval required by the City. West responded that the demolition and construction will require a Certificate of Appropriateness from the Historic Preservation Commission.

Public Testimony:

Carol Schmidt is a resident of the historic district and is supportive of the rezoning. However, Ms. Schmidt noted that the future use, as well as issues such as parking and traffic, should be thoroughly reviewed.

Mike Briggs is the President and CEO of Little Friends. Mr. Briggs is supportive of the proposed zoning and stated it is a win win for both Little Friends and North Central College.

Susan Fitch is a resident of the historic district and noted that the College is a good neighbor. Ms. Fitch raised concern with student parking and stated that parking and traffic should be thoroughly reviewed Angela Mundt stated that NCC's use of the property will change the dynamic. Currently the property is mostly used in the daytime; a future college use may be operating during the evening and weekend hours.

Ed Williams is a neighboring resident and also noted that NCC is a good neighbor. Mr. Williams raised concern with the future use of the property, as well as traffic and parking.

Eric House is a resident of the historic district and is in favor of the rezoning. Mr. House asked NCC to consider keeping the playlot on the property.

Matt and Jenny McNichols are residents of the historic district and are concerned with the future of the playground

Tom Coyne is neighboring resident and is against the rezoning. Mr. Coyne
