C. PUBLIC FORUM:

Dr. Bob Buckman explained how the DuPage Housing Alliance can serve as resource for the commission. He asked what the commission will do with the input of their analysis on the report and if the opportunity would be used to address affordable housing. He expressed concern with no affordable housing having been included in the recent approval of the Main Street Promenade. The commission must enact an inclusionary zoning ordinance to avoid losing future opportunities. Dr. Buckman also noted that the last Council meeting included a resolution against racism; lack of affordable housing disproportionately impacts communities of color. He also requested that the DuPage Housing Alliance Priorities Regarding SB Friedman's Toolkit be read into the record. This was done by Ms. Broder. Dr. Buckman thanked the commission.

Jorgen Phillips, representing the Accessible Community Task Force (ACTF), asked the commission to ensure that affordable housing recommendations also address the issue of accessibility.

A brief discussion ensued regarding the decision of some commissioners not to score certain recommendations.

Mary Hamill, a member of the Accessible Community Task Force (ACTF), asked about the difference between what was presented and what was included with the agenda item. Ms. Broder explained that the information was the same, but that the original spreadsheet organized the items by category rather than score. She shared the spreadsheet that presented the programs organized into categories.
