Festival Update:

Discussion today was focused on what the next steps were for the festival. Bill Donofrio discussed some of the events planned for some of the downtown businesses. There seems to be a lot of interest around this event. He's working closely with Katie Wood. The Commission will be reaching out to Quibo to see if there is any interest in having a margarita tasting.

Commissioners are being asked to join the parade. At the event, we can handout some information about the festival.

Alan discussed the requirements around providing liquor at the festival. The City is requiring fencing around the perimeter of the Concert Center.

F. NEW BUSINESS:

The Commissioners have decided to join the Jaycees Last Fling Labor Day Parade on Monday, September 6, 2021. They have approved the entry fee of $185.
