CITY OF NAPERVILLE PUBLIC MEETINGS UPDATE:

On Friday, June 12, 2020, an amendment to the Open Meetings Act was signed into law. This new law replaces the gubernatorial executive order concerning the Open Meetings Act and allows public bodies to temporarily conduct meetings remotely during a state of emergency, subject to certain requirements, including a determination by the head of the public body that an in-person meeting is not practical or prudent.

Pursuant to Section 120/7(e) of the Illinois Open Meetings Act, the continuation of the Governor's disaster proclamation, and Mayor Chirico's executive order determining that in-person public meetings are not currently practical or prudent because of the Covid-19 pandemic, we are holding the May 14, 2021 Naper Settlement Museum Board meeting remotely.

D. OLD BUSINESS:

Receive an update on grants.

Rena Tamayo-Calabrese summarized that staff have been seeking grants for programmatic needs and capital projects. An application is in the works for additional capital funding from the Illinois Department of Natural Resources that would go towards Innovation Gateway; Tamayo-Calabrese is hoping to submit this application by June 1 and would hear back in the fall. Naper Settlement has received funding from the DuPage Foundation in support of its Distance Learning field trips and has applied for additional capital funding through the Community Foundation of the Fox River Valley. Staff are working on a few ongoing grants including Unvarnished and Facing Change. Tamayo-Calabrese is waiting to hear from the Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity about an application that was submitted last year for funding for Innovation Gateway.

While staff are still working with a few foundations to secure funding for the Agricultural Interpretive Center, Naper Settlement is prepared to break ground on this building on 9/19. There will be a formal invitation for this event sent out soon. Pistorio added that the development team is working on a challenge grant from a donor that will complete the fundraising necessary to start construction on the Ag Center. The groundbreaking on Innovation Gateway may occur this year depending on grant funding. As the final designs for these buildings are developed, staff are working with the architects to help keep costs down considering the rising costs of lumber and steel. A discussion was had about how construction projects would impact planned events.

Receive an update on Naper Settlement's Long Range Plan

Donna Sack introduced the Long-Range Planning document, also known as the "Purple Document." Naper Settlement staff use this document to look ahead at the next five years to plan and budget for site-wide initiatives. Specifically, Sack focused on the steps outlined in the Long-Range Plan regarding digitization.

Mayor Chirico asked about how the virtual field trips had been received. Sack summarized that 1,800 students have participated so far and the feedback from teachers has been good, but staff were overconfident in their estimates of how many classes would take advantage of these programs this year with the pandemic still in full swing and schools and teacher continuing to pivot throughout the school year. In the future, staff will be looking to offer hybrid programming and will be creating a robust marketing plan ahead of the 2021-22 school year.

E. NEW BUSINESS:

F. REPORTS:

Receive updates on 2021 programming, including exhibits and summer events and camps.

Harriet Pistorio explained that marketing for the summer events is up and running. Naper Nights concerts will be held in July, August, and September instead of June, July and August due to the ongoing COVID pandemic. So far early ticket sales look very promising. Most of the rental events that come back to Naper Settlement annually are coming back. She also explained how staff were planning for potential capacity limits and added that wedding rentals are also returning to pre-pandemic levels.

Donna Sack explained that Camp Naper bookings are well ahead of previous years. Tickets went on sale in March and some programs are already sold out. She also summarized the new Answering the Call exhibit and explained how items from the Arnold Massier collection were used in it. She gave an overview of the upcoming Homefront 1940s weekend in September that will tie into the exhibit theme.

Receive and approve the financial report as of March 31, 2021.

Pistorio presented the financial report and explained that revenue is increasing as a result of virtual field trips and camp bookings. Gate admissions were low at the beginning of the year but are increasing. Wedding bookings are also solid - many weddings have been rescheduled from 2020 to 2021. Other revenue has come in from rental events like Food Truck fest.

Expenses are currently under projections due to savings in salary and benefits. Janitorial services have not cost as much as expected - because many staff have been working from home, less clean-up has been needed. Dollars will be spent on building maintenance and advertising as the weather improves.

The financials were approved with a motion from Al Zucco, seconded by Lee Quillinan. Motion carried 7-0.

Receive the attendance and demographics report through April 2021.

Pistorio shared that there was not much to report on attendance and demographics due to the pandemic, but staff are hopeful to see large crowds at the events in the spring and fall. A discussion was had about the school districts that have been using the virtual field trips up to this point and what expected trends are for the fall. Quillinan asked about the typical breakdown of Naperville vs. non-Naperville residents who visit Naper Settlement. Pistorio explained that it is usually close to half and half, but that the new ticketing software implemented in 2020 will allow staff to get better data on the demographics of visitors. The marketing team will be able to use this data to better target their efforts. Tamayo-Calabrese and Pistorio briefly summarized Cision, a software being used by the marketing team to track social media highlights and media coverage and said that the marketing team could attend the next NSMB meeting to present on it.
